

Some tips for making a perfect 2-minute self-introduction video

1. Dress up and smile!
2. Again, smile! 😊
3. Speak enthusiastically, but also as CLEARLY as possible and not too fast (your video is going to be viewed by a non-native speaker)!
4. Start from saying your name and age! Think of a short, memorable English name.
5. Be in a well-lit area!
6. Be confident!
7. Introduce your hobbies and talk about likes!
8. Use visual aids!
9. Emphasize your teaching experience!
11. Use simple and clear language and TPR!
12. Play some quiet music in the background!
13. Do not use words you can't pronounce perfectly!
14. Don't focus on your education, just mention it!
15. Focus on what makes you different from other people (interests, hobbies, languages, sports, pets, etc.)
16. Emphasize the fact that you can speak several languages and that you have traveled and lived in many countries so far.
17. Include a short part where you will show one of your teaching methods/materials/approaches.
